

Lucis Flux: Illimite'

1. Seize My (Our) Life Again

I hear a moan and feel my body's lightning
I see a door that leads to our incitement
I was all alone when I heard her scream
"Seize my life again!"
She would never dare to shame the moon
While it stood still
Until now...

Seize my life again

We can't remove our sin of violent crisis
I will not justify our way of license
We killed the world while we chased our dreams
(Seize our life again)
We'd never known we'd face the storm
We were tricked to bring
Until now

Seize our life again

Our seeded fate
Was once delayed by ancient mistakes
In the struggle to live we lied
To shield our eyes from blame
Until now

Seize our life again

2. Love Still Remains

With a truth we come
From the fire we run into the storm

Because I love you

The beat goes on and out in waves
The night we lost you
The morning star cried out your name
In echo you proclaimed
Our love will remain

As the structures fold
We remember we are not alone
Because I love you
The beat goes on and out in waves
Now that we lost you
We mine our hearts where the power lays
Together we stand brave
Our love will remain

There's a distant babe I hear
Drowning in her mother's tears
Profits kill the life I see
There's no price to great for peace

Our love still remains
Our will breaks the chains
Our mind plays the game
Our voice wills the reign
Our hands build the space
Our hearts light the new way

3. The Lie of the Two

Boundless
Is the name that I give to you
And the more that I give to you
The more I am bound to you

Into the wheel of darkness
Out of the world that you knew
I is the lie in "I love you"
I is the lie of the two

Boundless

Holding life in your arms
Giving birth to the stars
Of your oceanic heart

Turning the wheel in darkness
Swimming with joy of the new
All of Your children will love You
Mother, our play and our Muse

Mystery
That our mind cannot bear
Memory
Getting caught in a snare
That it thinks it can know

Out of the wheel of darkness
Boundless, my love beckons you
I is the lie in "I love you"
Water flows out, in, and through
Out of the wheel of darkness
Father, by light of the true
Fire consumes me and death swoons
Back to the One rides the two

4. Declaration Day

Now the time of revelation
Soon the Day of Declaration
All will see His face
The One we can't erase
The Teacher standing before all
Men and angels big and small

Speaking to us in our minds
Loving words where we will find
Our ancient past and source revealed
Knowledge come as truth unsealed
The wisdom of a trillion days
Love to galvanize our ways
Into willful action deep

To save our world from selfish sleep

Soon he will present the choice
For us to share or kill the voice
Singing in the hearts of men
Crying out for justice, and
The peace and freedom we demand
Behind our highest goal, we stand

Maitreya is our man
